Frequently Asked Questions

About Terrifying True Stories by candlelight.

Q: What is an immersive haunted theater experience?

A: It's a unique blend of an actual historically haunted venue and interactive theater where you become part of the story while professional actors create a spine-chilling narrative around you. It will take place in 5 different structures including old victorian houses and the grand finale takes place in an abandoned church although you can experience the attractions in any order.

Q: What time should I arrive?

A: We recommend arriving at least an hour before your ticketed showtime to allow yourself time to experience the other attractions before you go to the grand finale in the church but you can visit them in any order.

Q: How long does the experience last?

A: The average duration is 60-90 minutes to experience all of the attractions but this can vary based on how quickly you move through the different environments.

Q: Who should not attend?

A: We strongly discourage bringing babies, young children or people that are seriously terrified. There are no refunds. In addition, anyone who is pregnant, has heart conditions, is prone to seizures or anyone in poor health should not attend.

Q: Can I bring a dog or pet?

A: Unfortunately only trained service dogs are allowed at Heritage Square .

Q: Is there an age restriction?

A: Due to the intense nature of the experience, we recommend it for ages 16 and up. Guests under 18 must be accompanied by an adult.

Tickets and Booking

Q: How do I purchase tickets?

A: Tickets can be purchased online through our website or at the box office but it will sell out in advance..

Q: Are there different types of tickets available?

A: We offer standard admission tickets and VIP packages that include priority entry and exclusive behind-the-scenes content.

Q: What's your refund policy?

A: Tickets are non-refundable but can be transferred to another date, subject to availability.

Safety and Accessibility

Q: Is the experience safe?

A: Safety is our top priority. All our staff are trained in safety procedures, and the venue adheres to strict safety regulations.

Q: Is it accessible for people with disabilities?

A: We strive to accommodate all guests. Please contact us in advance to discuss specific accessibility needs.

Q: What should I do if I get too scared during the experience?

A: Our actors are trained to recognize distressed guests. Use the safe word "Safeword" at any time, and a staff member will assist you.

What to Expect

Q: Will I be touched by the actors?

A: Our policy is strictly no-touch. Actors may come close but will not make physical contact.

Q: Can I touch the props or scenery?

A: Although we encourage interaction with the environment, please do not touch the scenery or props. This is partially for your own safety. Some of the items you will see have a very haunted and dangerous history. Please be respectful and don't remove or damage any items.

Preparation

Q: What should I wear?

A: Comfortable, closed-toe shoes are a must. Some of the ground is uneven and the main path is covered in gravel. Avoid high heels.

Q: Can I bring personal items?

A: Definitely, although phones and cameras are not allowed during the experience.

Q: Is there a dress code?

A: While there's no strict dress code, we encourage dressing in dark colors to enhance the immersive experience and to please avoid anything too offensive.

Group Bookings

Q: Can I book for a large group?

A: Yes, we offer group rates for parties of 10 or more. Please contact our group sales department for details.

Q: Can we go through as a group?

A: Yes, we can usually accommodate groups of up to 10-12 people for the best experience.

Miscellaneous

Q: Are there strobe lights or loud noises?

A: Yes, the experience includes various special effects including strobe lights, fog and loud noises. If you have sensitivities, please inform us when booking.

Q: Is parking available?

A: We have a dedicated parking lot, and street parking is also available nearby.

Q: Can I come in costume?

A: Yes, in fact it is encouraged.
